The Lodge Mallorca & Tribe Retreats

We extend a heartfelt invitation to embark on a transformative journey, one that will guide us towards re-connecting with our bodies, our inner essence, and the unspoiled beauty of Mallorca's nature.

In today's fast-paced world, it's all too easy to find ourselves living outside of our own bodies. That's why this weekend is dedicated to nurturing a profound sense of awareness, shifting our focus from what we think we need to a deep appreciation for the abundance already present in our lives.

Our ethos at Tribe Retreats centers around transformation, unity, and a passionate commitment to fostering a strong, supportive community. As you join us for this transformative weekend, you can anticipate an immersive experience in the heart of Mallorca nature, enriching conversations, nature hikes and exceptional moments shared with like-minded souls.
